Hezekiah and the People Worshiped

2 CHRONICLES 29

Jerusalem had a new king. His name was Hezekiah (HEZ ih kigh uh). Hezekiah loved and obeyed God. The king before Hezekiah had shut the doors of the temple. The people could not worship God together. Hezekiah wanted the people to worship God at the temple again. But first the temple needed to be cleaned and repaired.

King Hezekiah said to the special church helpers, “The temple is a special place to worship God.” He told them to clean the temple.

When the special helpers finished their work, they told the king, “We have cleaned the temple. Everything is ready for the people to come and worship God.”

King Hezekiah and the people went to the temple. They listened to the sounds of people blowing trumpets, strumming harps, and clashing cymbals. People sang about God. The beautiful music helped the people think about and worship God.

King Hezekiah thanked God for the temple. He and the people were happy to worship God at the temple together again.
