THE BIBLE MEETS LIFE

Abram's and Lot's workers disagreed over land and water for the animals. Abram and Lot found an answer to the problem. God wants us to work together with our family members and show love to each other.

Abram Chose to Get Along

BASED ON GENESIS 13

Abram and his nephew Lot traveled together. They were both very rich and had lots of animals. They also traveled with helpers who cared for the animals.

Lot's helpers began arguing with Abram's helpers. There was not enough grass and water for all the animals.

Abram heard the helpers fighting. He knew it was wrong for the helpers to be arguing. Abram knew God wants families to get along and work together. Abram decided to talk to Lot.

Abram told Lot to choose the land where he wanted to live. Abram said he would take the other land. This way they would both have plenty of grass for their animals.

Lot chose the grassy land by the river. He moved his family, helpers, and animals to the land next to the river. Abram took his family, helpers, and animals and moved to another part of the land.

God was happy Abram chose to get along with Lot and He made Abram a special promise to bless Abram's family for a long time.
