LIFE POINT

We can love all people.

THE BIBLE MEETS LIFE

Jesus showed love to Zacchaeus, a tax collector hated by many people. Jesus loves all people. God wants us to love all people, even those who may be hard to love.

LIVE IT OUT

Review the Bible story with your child. Remind her that Jesus loves all people, and we can love all people, too. Help her think of a child she knows who might need a friend. Encourage your child to draw or color a picture to give to her new friend.

Jesus Loved
Zacchaeus

—Based on Luke 19:1-10

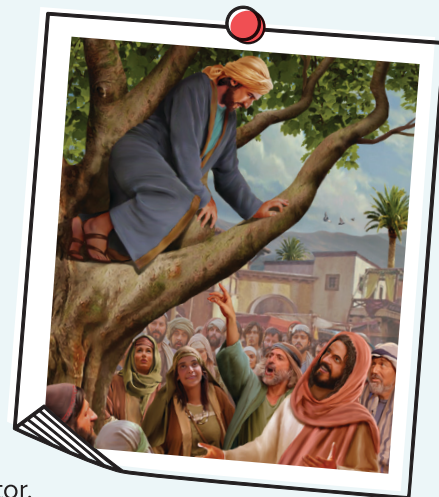

Jesus was traveling through the town of Jericho. A crowd of people gathered around Jesus. Everyone wanted to see Jesus, including Zacchaeus (za KEE uhs). Zacchaeus was a tax collector. He collected money that the people owed to the town. People did not like Zacchaeus because he was a tax collector.

Zacchaeus was not very tall. He could not see over the crowd of people. He ran ahead of the crowd and climbed a tree so he could see Jesus.

Jesus stopped under the tree. He said, “Come down, Zacchaeus. I want to go to your house today.” Zacchaeus quickly climbed down the tree. He was happy that Jesus was going to his house.

Jesus taught Zacchaeus many things. Zacchaeus was sorry for the wrong things he had done. He said, “I will help the poor people. If I have taken too much money from people, I will give them back all of their money and more.”
