LIVE IT OUT

Work together with your child to build a wall with blocks. March around the wall seven times, then knock the wall down together. Tell your child that obeying God is always the right thing to do.

Joshua and Jericho

—Based on Joshua 6:1-21

The city of Jericho was protected by large walls. No one went in or came out. God told Joshua that He would give the city to the Israelites.

God said for the Israelite army and seven priests carrying trumpets made of rams' horns to march around the city once each day for six days. On the seventh day, they were to march around the city seven times. The priests were to blow a long blast on the trumpets, and the army would shout. When they did this, the walls of the city would fall down.

Joshua obeyed God's instructions. Joshua told the people to walk without talking, not saying a single word. For six days the Israelites marched around Jericho in this way.

Early in the morning on the seventh day, Joshua led the Israelites to march around the city seven times. After the seventh time, the priests blew a long blast on their trumpets.

Joshua told the people to shout. The people shouted, and the walls of the city fell. Joshua and the Israelites took over the city.
