Daniel in the Lions' Den

—Based on Daniel 6

Daniel was a good man who did what God wanted him to do. King Darius (duh RIGH uhs) planned to put Daniel in charge of all the land. The other leaders did not like this. The men went to the king and told him to make a new law (rule) that would not let anyone worship or pray to God. Anyone who broke this law would be put in the lions' den.

Daniel heard the law, but he knew the right thing was to worship and pray to God. Daniel chose to continue praying to God. The other leaders told the king about Daniel. The king was sad, but he knew Daniel had to go into the lions' den. "May your God protect you," the king said to Daniel.

Daniel was put into the lions' den. The king did not sleep all night because he was worried about Daniel. The next morning, King Darius rushed to the lions' den and called out to Daniel. Daniel said, "God sent an angel to shut the lions' mouths. They did not hurt me."

King Darius was happy that Daniel was safe! The king wrote a law for all people to obey God.
